

Bramhall Golf Club Ladies Newsletter

Well I'm a month in and I've managed all my 'firsts', so I'm now really looking forward to the golfing season.

The Winter League is almost over and will be closely contested at the end I'm sure. We have managed to play most Thursdays, and we hope after this cold spell, the weather will settle down as we head towards the start of season.

The last Winter League shotgun start is on the 8th March, and following the competition and the usual soup and sandwich lunch, we will be playing Irish Bingo [all will be revealed on the day] with cakes and Prosecco. It's a small pre-birthday celebration for me, and someone else actually has a birthday on that day. If you're not playing golf, and you'd like to join in, could you please put your name on the list in the ladies foyer so we can have a rough idea of numbers.

The first timed competition is a 4BBB on 15th March. Remember to sign up on the Wednesday before. We will have to get back into the routine. The March competitions will get us into the swing [pardon the pun] for the start of season on April 12th. If you're a 36 handicap player, don't forget to check the updated handicap list.

The signup sheets for the knockouts and the eclectic lists are in the Pro shop.

Despite reminders, not everyone puts correct names on their score cards, and unfortunately the week that Claudia Winkleman played, she was disqualified as she is not a club member!!

I am so pleased that so many of you have taken the small savings cubes for St Ann's Hospice. Fill them with your small change and bring them to me and I will ensure the money is banked in the Charity Account. Thank you for your support.

The Invitation Bridge drive last week was the last for this winter, and will return in November. Many thanks to Breege and Janet for their organisation of these events.

If you feel like a change from playing Bridge however, there are sets of Dominoes in the Bridge cupboard in the Committee Room. Help yourself and have fun.

Finally, Marilyn Kershaw lost a Callaway pitching wedge on the day of the Christmas Competition and it has not yet been found. If you have not played since that day, could you please check your bags in case it had been put in there inadvertently and not come to light. Marilyn will be very grateful.

Sandra

Lady Captain